

Poem of Life

*Life is but a stopping place,
 A pause in what's to be,
 A resting place along the road,
 To sweet eternity.
 We all have different journeys,
 Different paths along the way,
 We all were meant to learn some things,
 But never meant to stay...
 Our destination is a place,
 Far greater than we know.
 For some the journey's quicker,
 For some the journey's slow.
 And when the journey finally ends,
 We'll claim a great reward,
 And find an everlasting peace,
 Together with the lord*

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

Ms. Betty Jean Jones

Ms. Betty Jean Jones was born August 22, 1958, in Dawson, Georgia, to the late Mrs. Bessie Kate Leary and the late Mr. Lonnie Leary.

Betty passed this life on October 2, 2022, at Huntsville Hospital.

Betty was baptized at an early age at a Pentecostal Church in Louisiana. Betty studied and graduated in the Terrell County public school system, where she received her High School Diploma. After high school, Betty married her former husband, Aaron Jones, Sr. They were stationed in Germany, Washington State, Georgia, Louisiana, and finally settled in Huntsville, Alabama. From that union, they birthed four children. Betty lived her life as a homemaker and community mom. Many called her "Mama Betty." She enjoyed cooking, dancing, shopping, and raising her family.

Betty was preceded in death by her siblings, John Lee Leary and Lonnie Leary of Dawson, Georgia, and grandson, Jashawn L. Douglas of Huntsville, Alabama.

Betty leaves to cherish her loving memories: former husband, Aaron (Marion) Jones, Sr., of Germany; three daughters, Jennifer Douglas, Tracy (Cleveland) Jackson, and Lashonda Jones, all of Huntsville, AL; one son, Aaron (Tadeija) Jones, Jr., of Huntsville, AL; bonus daughter, Brandi Douglas of Huntsville, AL; sisters, Linda (Bobby) McClendon and Lorrain Leary; brothers, Robert (Annie Jean) Leary, Jimmy (Mildred) Leary, John (Linda Sue) Leary, and Willie Leary; twelve grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
