

MY SON

*They say there is a reason,
They time will heal;
Neither time or reason
Will change the way I feel.
Gone are the days we used to share,
But in my heart you are always there.
The gates of memories will never close;
I miss you more than anybody knows...
Love and miss you everyday
Till we meet again*

*Always & Forever
Love Mom & Dad*

Reverend Marvin Green, Officiating

Khalil Garcia Hambrick was born to Steven and
Keona Hambrick on August
7, 2012, in Rockford, Illinois.

He had his first road trip at the age of five months, when he and his family relocated to Alabama. Needless to say, he did not want to see a car seat for a while after the long ride.

He started his schooling in the Huntsville City Schools District at Highlands Elementary School, where he attended the Pre-K program. He later attended Morris Elementary School. He was currently in the fifth grade at Martin Luther King Jr. Elementary School, before his passing due to a sudden illness.

It takes a special person to be loved by all classmates and teachers, but he managed to do so wherever he was. With such an eye-catching smile, according to his parents he became quite the “little ladies man” as he won the hearts of three special teachers: Ms. Quanisha Ford, Ms. Amy Cain, and Ms. Jessica Kennedy.

Khalil was forming his own relationship with God as he was attending the Eagles Nest Ministries Children’s Church.

Khalil was very quiet, but once he was around you, he would open up and be so clingy, especially with his teachers. Overall, he was just your average boy who loved YouTube, Roblox, playing outside, and riding his bike, hover board, and electric scooter. He most definitely enjoyed playing with his cousins and friends of the family. The main thing he loved to do was dress up in characters like Sonic the Hedgehog and Super Mario. He loved to go on family outings and vacations. He was starting to come out of his shell more as he matured. He was an avid lover of all sports, especially soccer and basketball.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Dorothy Thomas; great-grandfathers, Fred Murray and Milton Holden; great-grandmother, Rose Holden; and uncle, Nathan Melendez.

He leaves to cherish: his loving parents, Steven and Keona Hambrick; three sisters, Chandon Hambrick of Rockford, IL, and Aniyah-Lei Howard and K’tiana Hambrick, both of Huntsville, AL; two brothers, Stephon Hambrick of Rockford, IL, Kyrie Hambrick of Huntsville, AL, Dana Mangruen of Rockford, IL, and Annette Etheridge of Huntsville, AL; aunts, Penny (Crystal) Melendez, Shamera Thomas, Tina (Derrick) Price, and Latausha Holden; uncles, Alfonso (Carolyn) Melendez-Torrance and Ervin Hambrick; special aunt, Sandy Purifoy; special uncles, Kevin Purifoy, Larry Purifoy, and Ray Purifoy; and a host of cousins and friends.
