

To My "DC"

Life is but a vapor or a mist
Is what they say.
Therefore, I knew
I had to treasure you
For whatever amount of time
Was given in our days.
A long time ago,
You came into my life.
What a blessing it has been
And even more a joy
To be called your wife.
You provided everything
That you thought I needed
And more,
And you even done
The simple things,
Like opening up my doors.
I'm thankful for our children
And our grandchildren, too.
You never have to worry
As they will hear
Many stories about you.
Honestly, "DC,"

You've spoiled me
So many times.
Yes, it's true.
Life is going to be hard,
Especially having to do it
Without you.
But there are so many memories
That I have to hold on to.
I must remember
That I can't quit
As there is more living
For me to do.
Now you take your rest
And we will be fine.
I'm reminded that God
Wants only the best,
But why did it have to be mine?
The smiles you placed
Constantly on my face
Cannot compare to the imprints
You left on my heart.
I promise I'll miss you, baby,
But in Heaven is your new start.

Your loving wife "AC"
