

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

For My Brother

*As the spring flowers remembered cool morning dew,
My heart remembers you.
As the earth thrives at its distance from the Sun
so I will as well. As seasons past an etemity draws near;
the salves of time will dry our tears.*

Obituary

HILLARD RANDALL KIMBROUGH, affectionately known as “Packo,” was born on February 20, 2001, in Huntsville, Alabama, and he peacefully passed away on December 24, 2023. He was only 22 years old at the time of his departure.

Hillard, a beloved resident of Guntersville, Alabama, was a cherished son of his mother, Michelle Leslie, and father, Keith Kimbrough. His memory will be forever cherished by his loving girlfriend of over 8 years, Jacqueline Williams, who resides in Guntersville, Alabama. Hillard also leaves behind his two young sons, Hillard Jr. (2) and Messiah (1), who will forever feel his love and presence.

Hillard’s siblings, Precious Leslie and Darrion Holden, both residing in Huntsville, Alabama, will always remember their dear brother. He is also survived by his stepmother, Lynn Burke, and stepbrother, Cameron, who reside in Texas. Additionally, his brothers, Keiton and Kanden Kimbrough, who live in Nashville, Tennessee, mourn his untimely passing.

Hillard was loved deeply by his nieces, nephews, Aunt Bea, Grandmother Bertha (Honey), godmother, Lawanda, godbrother, Savior, and all residents of Huntsville, Alabama.
