

THE DAY GOD TOOK YOU HOME

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

GRATITUDE

On behalf of Chris' families, we appreciate the love and support as we mourn. The help of prayers and drives to medical facilities gave Chris comfort during his challenges. We thank you for the visits, calls, texts, time, food, donations, and all contributions of any sort.

We are forever thankful for the attentive care provided by medical staff from DaVita, Huntsville Hospital System, and especially the medical team at Vanderbilt Medical Center. Their assistance empowered Chris to fight a good fight until Glory called him home.

OBITUARY

In loving memory of our beloved, Mr. Christopher Lee McComb (fondly nicknamed "Chris.")

Chris is the son of Ms. Maggie Winton and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pride (Doris). He was born in Huntsville, AL on January 7, 1972 and his last sunset was on March 30, 2024.

At a young age, Chris attended Job Corps to further his education and learn work skills. From there, he lived life to the fullest as a fun-loving "Jack of all trades." To name a few, Chris was a former Volunteer Firefighter, former Sergeant of Arms for Street Fury Motorcycle Club and fearless security guard. In Chris' final profession, he was a devoted barber for several years at Kenny's Kutz where he resided in Athens, AL. Chris was a fixture at the barbershop, where he shared stories and laughter and heartfelt experiences with friends old and new.

Born with a spirit of adventure, Chris had a passion for bikes and motorcycles, so he loved zooming down open roads and the track. He cherished his time in Tuscaloosa, AL, where he gained a host of friends although he was a loud and proud Auburn fan. As an avid outdoorsman, Chris found peace in the quiet of hunting and fishing. His love for the outdoors was only matched by his zest for life's adventures, whether it be exploring new places or embarking on spontaneous escapades with family and friends.

Chris' vibrant personality and warm smile touched the lives of many, leaving a lasting impression on all who had the pleasure of knowing him. Chris was preceded in death by his brother Kerry Winton. He leaves behind a legacy of love and laughter, survived by his parents; caring significant other: Bridgett Caldwell; cherished children, son, Maurice Davis, and bonus children, Mackenzie Powers and Levi Powers; six siblings, Deborah Winton, Sorina Fitchard (Tony Sr.), Ethia, Charisse Robinson (Terrance), Keisha Curtis, and Thomas Pride, II (Kayla); three grandchildren; best friend, Jason Klimek; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and countless friends who will forever hold him in their hearts.

Chris' spirit will live on in the memories of those he touched and the laughter he shared. May he rest in peace, forever riding on the open road of eternity.

Special thanks to:
The Lucas, Pride, Sullivan and Winton Families
