

My Baby Boy Kenny.

When you were born, you were the last jewel God placed in my motherly crown. Kenny, you were so precious, a beautiful and solid stone. Everything that I could ask for, and surely God blessed me with you.

You were such a meek, sweet, loving, affectionate, and most caring son. You truly loved unconditionally and always wanted to be a blessing to others, even the undeserving. You were apologetic when you didn't need to be. You Kenny, simply just wanted to love and to be loved. Your kindred spirit overflowed. The love that you had for me, your siblings, nieces, and nephews was a love that will forever be embraced.

My child, I miss you with all of my heart. This pain is one that I cannot describe. You didn't say goodbye, I didn't get the kiss on the forehead, I didn't get a hug. I've been shattered into a million pieces and I can only depend on the Heavenly Father to put me back together again. "I love you," were your last precious words to me Saturday night 04/06/24 7:57pm

Son, I love you and I don't know just how to let you go. I thank God for giving me such a wonderful gift (you) and never imagined having to say goodbye to my sweet and loving child. 36 years you were given, and it hurts, so so bad that it is no more. So young, so gifted, my baby boy. I badly wish I could cradle you in my arms one last time. I know that you are resting well in the Master's arms and I know that he will be our comforter. I love you.

Rest My Dear Heart, Mama

OBITUARY

Kenneth Paul Jones II, affectionately known as “Kenny”, was born in Charleston, South Carolina, on October 28, 1987, to Andretta E. Jones and Kenneth Jones, Sr. Kenny was fondly known as everybody’s “baby”. He transitioned this life on Sunday, April 7, 2024.

At an early age Kenny accepted Christ and was baptized at New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church by Reverend Ricky L. Sykes, where he was a member of the youth and children’s choir. Kenny captivated the hearts of many with his gift of song. He was a shy and humble child, but most of all he was a proud “Mama’s Boy.” His precious, sweet, and laid-back demeanor was the perfect remedy for anyone having a bad day. At the tender age of four, it was discovered that he was blessed and anointed with a beautiful voice! His and his big sister Kendi’s first audition was in the bathtub singing “I have a friend indeed”. He was often dubbed with the nicknames “Little Luther” and “Reverend James Moore.” It was quite a treat to hear him sing. As a strong vocalist, he led many songs at church and in his high school Gospel choir. Kenny recorded several songs independently after graduation from J.O. Johnson High School in 2007.

Kenny chose to further his education at Alabama A&M University, where he was a member of the Gospel choir. Over the course of his career, he served as an I.T. Technician and was an intellect in his own right, earning several certificates and awards during his professional career. Kenny was notably fashionable and had all of the latest threads. His interests also included a love for cars, gadgets, technology, gaming, and fixing things. After becoming an uncle in 2003, it was obvious he was going to be one of the best. He cared for his nieces and nephews like they were his own. He was intentional about spending time with them, and they all adored him just as much. Kenny enjoyed good food and was an amazing cook. He would often call and ask family and friends to come and enjoy a cookout.

We symbolically celebrate his life with his favorite color, Red, which arguably is the most important color in the Bible. Red also symbolizes atonement, life, and humanity. Kenneth was the ruby in his mother’s crown, where he shall remain forever.

He will forever be loved and cherished by: his devoted mother, Andretta Ephriam Jones; father, Kenneth Jones, Sr.; loving sisters, Michelle T. Ephriam and Kendriand J. Garner; big brother, O’Korie Mass; godbrother, Laurent-Daniel Vergnac; nieces, Kaila, Dalcyce, and Elise; nephews, Jayden, Kingston, Ace, Jaxston, Zakary, and Jaycen; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who were all dear to him.

He was different. He was special. Unique in a thousand ways. He was giving, he was loving and we’ll miss him in all our days.
